

April 7, 1942.

Mr. James Horowitz,
344 Broadway,
Long Branch, N. J.

Dear Mr. Horowitz:

I thought I would drop you a line and ask you if you have outlined your program for Red Bank for the coming season.

Mr. Manley is at present South ^{with} the Ball Club, and I was just trying to get a line on all the available spots to play this coming year. There is a lot of talk about an extra hour of daylight in New Jersey, which would enable us to start games at 7 O'Clock and play without lights, this of course would be much less expensive and more satisfactory if the fans will come out at that hour.

Please let me hear from you as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ